The meeting was attended by

Sr. No.	Name
1	Mr. Rajesh Bhatikar – Administrator
2	Dr. Aruna Mesquita e Noronha – IQAC Coordinator
3	Mr. Gaurav Kenkre - Chairman
4	Dr. Felcy Coelho – Secretary
5	Dr. Mamta Kane – Treasurer
6	Mr. Amit Naik

Dr. Aruna Mesquita e Noronha extended a warm welcome to the alumni members.

The members agreed to use the alumni fund to help the needy students but were of the opinion that there has to be a criteria and capping for such funding. The details about the scholarship under the alumni association should be mentioned in the college prospectus as well as the college website so that the students are aware about the scholarship. The members proposed that 2-3 students who fulfil the required criteria can be awarded the scholarship.

The Chairman suggested that the alumni association can also contact the college alumni by sending them e-mail and then identifying those alumni who are willing to sponsor the fees of the needy students.

Mr. Rajesh Bhatikar, Administrator of S.S. Dempo College of Commerce & Economics, informed the members about the New education policy.

Mr. Bhatikar stressed on the importance of bridge courses for the higher secondary students and told about the course design of Dempo higher secondary students of commerce stream and also spoke about the way the syllabus is framed. The Chairman asked the members how the syllabus for B.com Course is designed and how it could be revised. Mr. Bhatikar informed him that the BOS committee drafts the syllabus which is then approved by the Academic Council. The Chairman suggested that the BOS should comprise of both academicians or subject experts as well as members of industry and trade so that the syllabus is both practical and theoretical and not just theoretical.

The Chairman gave innovative suggestion about a bridge course for college students could be organised by the Alumni Association where the students could enroll for a 15 days course during summer vacation and after successfully completing the course the student could be awarded a course certificate. He said that he could take suggestions and recommendations from

Assistant Professor Dr. Felcy Coelho, Secretary of the Alumni Association read the minutes of the previous meeting.

The Secretary informed the members about the Online lecture series organized by the Alumni Association in the year 2020 and that such lecture series will be organized every semester.

The secretary also informed that a meeting of the staff members who are alumni of the college was held on 12th March 2021. During the meeting it was proposed that various activities like cycling competition, Cricket tournament and Cultural day can be organised by the alumni association.

The members of the executive committee accepted the proposed idea and decided to organize a cycling completion for the academic year. The Chairman, Mr. Gaurav Kenkre suggested that the competition should have a purpose for example promoting fitness, save environment etc. It was decided that Rs. 100 will be the registration fee for the cycling event and the procedure for registration was discussed and decided during the meeting.

Dr. Aruna Mesquita e Noronha suggested that the alumni can help in online internship programmes for students. The Chairman added to this by suggesting that the association can send e-mail to alumni asking for online / offline part-time internship, this could also help by translating into placements.

Assitant Professor Amit Naik informed about some students who are financially weak and cannot afford to pay admission fees. These students are not eligible to avail any scholarships which are currently offered in the college. Some students even leave the college as they cannot afford to pay the fees. He proposed to the members if the alumni fund can be used to help such needy students.

GCCI relating to what they want from fresh graduates in terms of skills and academics and accordingly the courses could be offered to the students to mould them according to the needs of the industry

The Chairman also suggested involving the alumni by introducing one to one mentorship for projects such as the T.Y. B.com projects and other outreach projects of the college. He also informed that the prestigious CA institute will be organising a National conference which would be a enriching experience for the I.M.COM students. The Chartered Accountants who are college alumni can mentor I.M.COM students and help them to present paper at the conference.

Dr. Mamta Kane, Treasurer of the Alumni Association thanked the alumni for their valuable presence and time.

The principal , Dr. Radhika Nayak extended a warm welcome to the alumni members.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary , Asst. Prof Felcy Coelho .

The Principal emphasized upon the need to have a rich alumni base and stated that it is a NAAC requirement, and a lot of weightage is given to alumni contribution to the institution. The principal rightly said that it is important for the alumni to remain connected to the college, and give back to the institution whatever way they can. There is a need to organise activities on a regular basis to draw alumni to college and there is a need to develop a database of the alumni. It was suggested to plan a Reunion batch -wise.

The Chairman, Gaurav Kenkre suggested that we get in touch with 5-10 students from each batch and get them to invite the rest of their batchmates for the reunion. They can either call them or invite via WhatsApp group.

The chairman also suggested that we gather alumni info via Google form and ask for mobile number and name of the city. A digital marketing competition can be held for the students in order to collect responses from the alumni through the google form. A budget of Rs. 10,000 to Rs.20,000 can be kept in order to give prizes for the students who get the maximum alumni responses.

Vice Chairman, Krishnan Naik suggested that the alumni committee and staff members can circulate alumni form through whatsapp groups, facebook and instagram

The Principal suggested a great idea, where a campus walk through can be arranged. Where the alumni can be invited to see the new campus in batches of senior and junior. This can be a good opportunity for them to meet friends. We can also get the alumni to fill registration form during this event.

It was suggested by the members that Alumni could take help of alumni for Earn while you learn scheme and summer internship. The college can also partner with training institutions through alumni contacts as it will help students with employability, to understand the process of employment and help the students to choose a career and excel at it.

Asst. Prof. Amit Naik pointed out that the alumni can register and participate as a group in the marathon scheduled for next month.

It was suggested by the alumni members to speak to alumni who are running fitness centres to sponsor customised t-shirts for the runners with the college logo. Posters about the same can be put at fitness centres.

The principal thanked the alumni for their valuable presence and time.
