Karnatak Law Society's IMER (estd 1991) is located in Belagavi, Karnataka. Blessed with salubrious weather, this cosmopolitan city is connected by air, rail and road and is nestled on a plateau at the mid-point of the Mumbai-Bengaluru NH4 highway. Goa is 160 km to its west.

IMER campus bustles with students making the most of spacious classrooms, specialisation zones, a well-stocked library, computer labs, reading room, digital library, an excellent auditorium, workshop room, syndicate rooms, discussion areas, incubation centre, full-fledged gymnasium, in-campus canteen facility, various sports facilities and hostels for boys and girls, and Psychological Counselling Centre.

Over the past two years systematic investments have been made to reduce our carbon footprint by adding a 70Kwp rooftop solar energy unit, a rain-water harvesting unit, and a food composting unit at the canteen.

KLSIMER sets itself apart by fostering an atmosphere of experiential learning that ignites entrepreneurship, nurtures alumni relations, celebrates student-driven activities, and fosters institute-industry relations. Its focus on employability accounts for professional training (in house and out-bound), frequent industrial visits (domestic and international) and skill development programs. World class speakers come to our institution regularly.

Karnatak Law Society's IMER fostering atmosphere of experiential learning

The KLS IMER Library has a robust collection of over 17500 books, 7500 titles, 120 current subscriptions to journals and magazines, 22,000 online full text/abstracts newspapers, thesis, project reports of students, CDs/DVDs, NPTEL course materials.

KLS IMER has tie-ups with world class organisations such as the Deshpande Foundation, Hubli, The Indus Entrepreneurs (TiE), IIT, Madras, etc. A few details follow:

Deshpande Foundation's Sandbox Startups has in association with KLS IMER set up an Incubation Centre, Sandbox - IMER Incubation Centre - to incubate startups.

KLS IMER's focus on all-round development of students means that certification programmes in digital marketing (IIM Kolkata), financial literacy (Karvy financials), MS Excel, Logistics and Supply Chain Management (CIIL), etc., can be pursued on campus thereby building a student portfolio of employable skills that companies seek.

Alumni network is one of the strategic resources for student engagement, learning, internships and placements.

The placement cell at KLS IMER provides a strong foundation for students' success by emphasising internships, training, placements, and alumni relations. Students are trained to face interviews, aptitude tests and group discussions, develop soft skills, and in resume writing. Professionals from various industries visit the institute and interact with students on regular basis and guide them in accordance with the industry norms and standards.

Directorate of Skill Development ensuring steady flow of vocationally trained manpower

The primary aim and responsibility of the Directorate of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship is to ensure steady flow of skilled workers/ craftsmen in different trades to public and private industrial units, as well as, to reduce unemployment amongst the educated youth by providing them with employable skills through training offered, in various skill sets, under Industrial Training Institute (ITIs), Vocational Training Providers (VTPs) and surveyed Industries/Establishments, in both public and private sector in the State. The whole vocational training ecosystem in the State is embedded in three Central Govt. Schemes, namely the Craftsman Training Scheme, Skill Development Initiative and Apprenticeship Training Schemes.

This effort of ensuring a steady flow of vocationally trained manpower in the labour market is also supplemented through a Government registered Society called Human Resource Development Foundation Society, which has, as on date, around 59 registered Private Institutes imparting Vocational Training, especially in the Hospitality, Travel and Tourism sectors.

The supply chain runs on a robust, well connected and strongly cemented forward and backward integrated link, between the suppliers (schools), the processors (training providers) and customers (employers). Further, the chain of training providers are strongly bonded to the employers by way of Institute Management Committees, whose Chairman and Members are Captains of Industries or the Employers, themselves.

Nitte University, a varsity with a difference

What began as a small school at Nitte almost 40 years ago has today become one of the most popular universities in India (NIRF rating 83), accredited with Grade "A" by NAAC.

With a dental college equipped with 400 dental chairs and ranked 8th among dental colleges in the country, a medical college that has a 1200 bed multispecialty hospital serving as a teaching hospital, an engineering college that lays strong emphasis on research and has a vibrant Entrepreneurship Development Cell, a college of pharmacy which is ranked 27th in India (NIRF ranking), a nursing college which has a placement record of 100 per cent, a college of physiotherapy, a management institute which has the prestigious ACBSP accreditation, a college of biomedical science, a communication institute and a school of architecture. The University operates from three campuses - Nitte, Mangaluru and Bengaluru and has 20,000 students studying in these campuses annually.

Sanjay Ghodawat University empowering lives globally

Sanjay Ghodawat University (Formerly called Sanjay Ghodawat Group of Institutions) is the only private (self financed) University in the South Western region belt of Maharashtra. Its uniqueness lies in the world class academic culture for innovative teaching - learning practices with an emphasis on research and innovation. The University has roped in the best of academic professionals and experts in the teaching field and provides a world class supportive infrastructure for the purpose. It offers UG, PG and PhD courses in Liberal Arts, Science, Commerce, Management, Technology and Education.

The President of the Sanjay Ghodawat University, Sanjay D Ghodawat had commenced the Sanjay

Ghodawat Group of Institutions in the year 2009. In the last 8 years the institute matured beyond expectations and was accredited by NBA and also received NAAC A Grade accreditation. The Times of India survey had ranked the Institute with 44th Rank in the category of upcoming private educational institutes of the nation. The natural progression was to evolve as a University. The chairman's vision is to produce leaders and workforce for the 21st century through the channel of the best educational practices around the globe. To encompass more creativity and freedom in offering and designing courses, curriculum, industry based practices, research based pedagogy which will help students to evolve as professionals and leaders with proactive outlook and societal concern the University was formed.

The vice chancellor of the University, Prof Dr V A Raikar says that one of the unique features of the University is the emphasis on holistic education. Education should bring out the hidden potential within students that liberates them to be all they are meant to be. All the curriculum, pedagogy and practices at the University will aim for the same.

Much Ado About Nothing

Film: Padmaavat
Cast: Deepika Padukone, Ranveer Singh, Shahid Kapoor
Directed by: Sanjay Leela Bhansali
Duration: 2 hrs 43 mins
Rating: **

Sanjay Leela Bhansali's Padmaavat (formerly known as Padmavati, till the Central Board for Film Certification and Name Changing decided to rechristen it) has been in the news for all the wrong reasons even when it was being shot, and the controversies and violence upon its release has given madness a new name. As they say, look for stupidity in anything and you are likely to find it. But that whole matter could be dealt with in a separate column altogether.

FILM REVIEW SACHIN CHATTE

As for the film, it doesn't really work. Yes, visually it is stunning with top class production values and a good cast - but it comes to naught thanks to a weak screenplay co-written by Bhansali. The original story didn't have much depth to begin with, and it is diluted further here, and the characters are such that you don't really care for any of them. The film is based on a 16th century poem by Sufi poet Malik Mohammed Jayasi. In the poem, a parrot played an integral role, in the film it has been replaced by a spiritual guru. But that's not the only change, there is very little resemblance to Jayasi's poem and the film. As for the Rajput valour and pride, there is an overdose in the film and this clearly a one sided narrative. Which begs the question, what exactly are the protestors on the street against? As they say, you can wake a man if he is sleeping, you can't wake him if he is pretending to sleep.

Early on in the film, we are introduced to princess Padmavati (the Central Board for Film Certification and Name Changing has changed the name only in the title, not in the rest of the film) played by Deepika. The way she chases a deer, she would have made a good contender for track and field events at the Olympics, had there been Olympics in the 13th century. Her archery skills are highly questionable though - instead of hitting a deer, the arrow injures a king, Maharawal Ratan Singh (Shahid Kapoor) of Mewar, who has come to the island kingdom of Singhal (Sri Lanka) in search of pearls. He quickly decides to marry her, and since polygamy was as common in those days in Rajputana tax without meters in the state of Goa today, it all goes smoothly.

Meanwhile, we are also introduced to Allauddin Khilji (Ranveer Singh) who has come all the way from Afghanistan and has already captured Delhi and is looking to expand his reach even further. The film portrays him as a maniac of sorts: he is debauched, kills people at will - he is responsible for at least three severed heads in the film - and has deplorable table manners. He cares two hoots about any one till he hears about the beauty of Rani Padmavati. He also has a devoted slave Malik Kafur (Jim Sarbh) who becomes his General. At one point, Kafur even breaks into song while his master is in the bath tub. Their exact relationship appears to be more queer than clear.

Since he seems to have nothing better to do, Khilji lays siege to the fortress city of Chittor - all for a woman he has never seen. Many a man has done ridiculous things for love, but this could well be one of man's more expensive follies as far as this continent is concerned. While the enemy is camped outside, within the fortress, everyone is celebrating everything from Diwali to Holi - it's a Bhansali film, in case you have forgotten - and if there is no reason for colour and light, a reason has to be created. Padmavati is shown wearing so much jewellery that I suspect it was responsible for 50 per cent of her gross weight at that time.

But it all comes to an end after a long fight; the king is dead thanks to permeable armour which can be attributed to a faulty procurement system his army. The women of the palace, led by Padmavati, jump into a rather big pyre in ultra slow motion (hey, we want you to feel the emotion while the women, including a pregnant one, all of them dressed in bridal red, head towards the fire). Cinema, at times, is about manipulation of emotions but a good film doesn't do it so blatantly.

What stands out ultimately, are the sets and the cinematography. All that opulence is fine - but where is the story, where is the drama and what about the characters? The war scenes look very ordinary; we have seen better stuff before. As for the dialogues there is one which goes, "Loha hi lohe ko katta hain" or something to that effect. Now, where have I heard that before?

Of the cast, there isn't much chemistry between Shahid Kapoor and Deepika Padukone; the lady though manages to hold forth, figuratively speaking that is, in every scene. Ranveer Singh meanwhile has a whale of a time portraying Khilji; he adds a certain quirkiness which perhaps didn't exist in the real life person but is fun to watch all the same.

The only reason to watch this film is the extravagance -- the sets and the costumes. But 2 hours and 43 minutes is a long time to watch heavy jewellery and splashing fountains.

Get set to trek the Himalayas!

To encourage young students and youth to indulge in fitness enhancing activities and adventure, The Goa Hiking Association (GHA) will organise 'National Himalayan Trekking Expedition 2018' at Ghoshal -Manali, Himachal Pradesh from April to June 2018 and various other activities during the year. NT BUZZ reports

NT BUZZ
 Trekking and hiking can be viewed from two different stand-points; as an intense physical exercise, or a unique learning experience. It not only puts forth challenges but physically and mentally prepares one to deal with the obstacles that come their way. To give students and youngsters this experience the Goa Hiking Association will hold two high altitude mountaineering expeditions: Ghoshal to Beas Kund (Alt 11,975 feet) and Ghoshal to Bhrighu Lake (Alt 14,400 feet) between May 1 and May 30 this year. The treks will also include rock climbing, rappelling, and camp fire. Additionally, the association will also engage in educational camping in the Himalayas for school students that includes six-days of camping from April 15 to June 10; with full day learning sessions about the environment, culture and their surroundings.

Speaking about the initiative, president, Goa Hiking Association, Pramod Kamat said: "We are delighted to engage with young girls and boys and show them the real face of nature through these treks. Goa Hiking Association is devoted to provide a holistic learning and fun experience to young students, as well as ensuring their safety through all our programmes."

Written applications are invited from youngsters who wish to be part of the expeditions on the basis of which participants will be selected.

The Goa Hiking Association is a voluntary organisation founded in 1974 and is recognised by Sports Authority of Goa and affiliated with Indian Mountaineering Foundation.

EDUNext 2018 inaugurated

Y V Reddy speaking at the inaugural function of EDUNext 2018

NT BUZZ
 EDUNext Goa 2018, a two-day education and career fair initiated by the Government of Goa, The Navhind Times and the department of event management, S S Dempo College Panaji was inaugurated on January 27 at Kala Academy, Panaji at the hands of Registrar of Goa University, Y V Reddy in the presence of trustee, Dempo Charities Trust, Yatish Dempo.

Speaking at the inaugural function Reddy said parents should not pressurise their children to choose a particular career but the choice should be left upon the children. He stressed on the fact that one should enjoy what one is studying rather than feel the pressure from teachers and parents. He encouraged students to explore possibilities beyond the boundaries of the state.

The inaugural function was followed by a face to face interaction for students with Chief Minister, Manohar Parrikar. There were various stalls put up by institutions like Dempo Charities Trust; Department of Agriculture, Government of Goa; Footwear Design and Development Institute, Government of India, and NITTE University, Mangalore and Bangalore, among others.

The first day of the fair had sessions on various career paths like engineering, tourism and hospitality, retailing and information technology. Resource persons for the sessions were professor from BITS Pilani, Pravin Singru; professor at Institute of Hotel Management, Pankaj Kumar Singh; Centre incharge, FDDI Hyderabad, Arun Kumar Gaikwad and CEO of Androicid Media, Prajyot Mainkar. The schedule for today will include sessions on careers in event management and finance, a presentation by Victoria University and a motivation and counseling session by psychiatrist Harish Shetty, to name a few.

Department of Agriculture is located at the Krishi Bhavan, Tonca and caters to the needs of farming community of Goa.

Besides providing financial assistance to make farming viable, the two main functions of the department are to provide training and impart skill to farmers.

The department functions through 12 Zonal Agriculture Offices located in all the 12 talukas of Goa.

Agriculture scenario in the state is also set to move to new heights with various initiatives being undertaken to motivate youth and farmers to take up commercial ventures as a viable option for generating self employment and increasing income.

This is with an aim to achieve the "Sustainable Development Goals" of the country by 2030 and Prime Minister's goal of doubling farmers income

Agriculture department catering to farming needs

by 2022, by improving the productivity, profitability and sustainability of agricultural systems of Goan Farmers.

Creation of an identity "Brand Goa/Born in Goa, through value addition, use of information technology, modern marketing strategies, using "Agri Cloud" platform of e-services for farmers will give a major boost to marketing.

A Hi-Tech Floriculture Park in Goa is being established to promote Goa as a flower production zone. Promotion of Commodity Interest Groups, Farmers Interest Groups and federating them into Farmer Producer Organisations will bring about considerable changes to our agricultural scenario and creation of infrastructure such as hub's and satellite markets along highways for marketing local agricultural produce and value added products.

EDC Ltd, a catalyst for economic growth

EDC Limited is a premier financial institution in Goa and has during the last 42 years of its existence been a catalyst for economic development and industrial growth in Goa.

The history of EDC is a repertoire of achievements. It has extended financial assistance of over Rs 2400 crore by way of term loan to more than 9000 industrial and service sector projects resulting in large scale economic activity and generation of jobs.

EDC Limited also successfully operates its flagship scheme, the Chief Minister's Rojgar Yojana targeted at the unemployed youth of Goa between the ages of 18-45 years in order to encourage them to set up self employment ventures. The Corporation has so far sanctioned Rs 162 crore to around 6500 first generation entrepreneurs for a wide range of activities. This is one of the best performing schemes and has an excellent recovery rate of 93%.

EDC takes pride in its versatility and has geared itself to diversify from a pure lending institution into other challenging areas like setting up an Incubation Startup Centre and a Convention Centre.

Lakshya Academy training for competitive exams

Australian postgraduate courses at VU-GNU Centre

VU India provides students with the opportunity to study an Australian master's qualification in India. Students will complete their studies at the VU-GNU Centre, Ahmedabad, conveniently located in a high quality, dedicated space within the Ganpat University City Operations Centre. Internationally-recognised postgraduate courses from Victoria University are now available to students at a highly affordable price. In addition, taking up the option of a GNU master's award will enable you to qualify for PhD study in an Indian university and secure Indian Government positions. Victoria University and Education Centre of Australia have enjoyed a strong history of global collaboration delivering education programs in India. In 2010, ECA partnered with VU and Ganpat University to establish the first VU India centre. Through this partnership, it was the first time an Australian university program (Master of Business in Enterprise Resource Planning Systems) had been offered in India.

This one feels bittersweet – I'm happy to be in the finals, but not like this. Chung's had an incredible tournament" -- Federer

Federer to face Cilic in final

MELBOURNE

Roger Federer has moved to within one win of his 20th Grand Slam singles title after securing his spot in the Australian Open decider when Hyeon Chung retired from their semifinal on Friday night.

AUS OPEN

Defending champion Federer was leading 6-1, 5-2 when Chung retired because of blisters on his left foot. Federer, who spent just over an hour on court, will play No 6-seeded Marin Cilic in the final on Sunday night.

"I've played with blisters in the past ... and it hurts a lot," said Federer, who will be contesting his 30th major final. "At some point, you can't go on. This one feels bittersweet—I'm happy to be in the finals, but not like this. He's had an incredible tournament." AP

Bopanna reaches mixed doubles final

India's Rohan Bopanna inched closer towards his second Grand Slam title by reaching the mixed doubles final of the Australian Open along with Hungarian partner Timea Babos.

Bopanna served well while Babos stood out with her fierce returns in their 7-5, 5-7, 10-6 win over Brazilian Marcelo Demoliner and Spain's Maria Jose Martinez Sanchez in the semi-final. Bopanna had won his maiden Grand Slam crown at the 2017 French Open, where he won with Canadian Gabriela Dabrowski.

BENGALURU

Bengaluru FC returned to the top of the Indian Super League table after a hard-fought 2-1 victory over NorthEast United at the Sree Kanteerava Stadium here on Friday.

Spanish defender Juanan scored the opening goal to give BFC the lead before Marcinho equalised for the visitors from the spot.

But it was BFC skipper Sunil Chhetri who scored the winner to take BFC to the top again.

The victory means BFC are a point above Chennaiyin after the same number of games. The Blues have now won four of their last five matches.

Seminlen Doungel, still fresh from his hat-trick against Chennaiyin FC, tried to go for the spectacular when he went for a back-heeled effort early on.

He was in the thick of the action again, but this time his high-boot led to an innocuous looking free kick

GALLANT EFFORT: Bengaluru FC goalkeeper Gurpreet Singh jumps high in the air to collect the ball during their game against NorthEast United FC in Bengaluru on Friday for Bengaluru.

Edu Garcia aimed straight for the danger area and Juanan somehow flicked it into the net to give the home side the lead. They almost doubled their lead but Chhetri's low effort was saved by the goalkeeper's foot and then a well-worked free kick was easily defended by North-East.

The two chances came immediately after BFC had taken the lead and could have really hurt the visitors. Lenny Rodriguez then set up Garcia with one of the passes of the league but the finish was very poor and didn't do justice to the precise pass.

Juanan had another shy on goal with a header but this time it was just wide.

Then Bengaluru gave away a penalty and allowed NorthEast to score completely against the run of play. It was a soft penalty where Subhasish Bose's arm struck the ball after a sliding tackle. Marcinho blasted the penalty past Gurpreet Singh. The second-half saw Garcia get another chance - but he made things difficult for himself and his attempt to curl the ball into the net went begging.

FC Goa sign Sifneos

FC Goa announced the signing of former Kerala Blasters FC striker Mark Sifneos who penned a deal with the club till the end of the season. The Dutchman, at 19 years of age is the youngest foreign player in the Indian Super League and was the first goal scorer for his former team in this season. The youngster already has four goals and an assist in the tournament and will be looking to add to that tally with the Gaurs who are the highest goal scorers of the tournament, having played ten games. Sifneos scored a goal against FC Goa when Kerala played Goa at the Nehru Stadium in Fatorda.

BARCELONA

Holders Barcelona reached the King's Cup semi-finals with a 2-0 win over Espanyol on Thursday to overcome a first-leg deficit on a night when new signing Philippe Coutinho made his debut.

Early goals from Luis Suarez and Lionel Messi calmed the nerves at the Nou Camp after Barca's great rivals Real Madrid, as well as Athletic Bilbao and Real Sociedad, had been knocked out of this season's competition by unfancied opponents.

Facing city rivals Espanyol was a potential banana skin for Ernesto Valverde's side, who lost last week's first leg 1-0, but Barcelona were rarely troubled in front of a vibrant Nou Camp.

Barca's new Brazilian attacking midfielder Coutinho, who arrived from Liverpool this month for a club record fee of 142 million pounds ($200.65 million), was given a standing ovation when he came on to take his bow in the second-half.

His every touch was loudly cheered on a night when Barca bade farewell to their versatile Argentine Javier Mascherano who is joining Chinese Super League side Hebei China Fortune.

Mascherano was given a guard of honour before the game in recognition of his seven-and-a-half years at the Nou Camp.

Suarez levelled the score in the tie after eight minutes, nodding in Aleix Vidal's cross from close range to put Barca ahead on the night before Messi's deflected effort from distance in the 25th ensured place in the last four. Espanyol produced a spirited late comeback but were almost caught on the break when Messi headed against the post.

Barca join Real Madrid's conquerors Leganes, Valencia, who on Wednesday beat last season's runners-up Alaves on penalties, and Sevilla, who thrashed Atletico Madrid, in Friday's draw for the semis, with the first legs to be played next Wednesday.

Arambol succumb to Moira despite undue advantage

DULER

The Goa Football Association Geno First Division league started with the bleep as Arambol played with one U-20 player, instead of two, and despite the advantage lost 2-6 to AA De Moira at Duler stadium on Friday.

After some jostling off the pitch about the number of U-20 players to be mandatorily fielded, the match took off at 4.10 p.m.

GFA GENO 1ST DIV

Craig Menezes did most of the damage as he accounted for five of Moira goals. The Moira outfit got their acts together in the 23rd minute when Rudresh Tendulkar set up Craig Menezes inside the penalty box for the last named to tap the ball into the Arambol goal, 1-0.

Three minutes later, Moira doubled their lead when a shot at the goal by Craig Menezes rebounded off the goal post which travelled to Rohit Totad who slotted the ball past keeper Kewan D'Souza, 2-0.

However, Arambol managed to pull a goal in the 32nd minute when a fierce shot by Hemant Rodrigues took a wicked deflection off a Moira defender to find the ball land into the goal, 2-1.

In the 40th minute, Moira's Craig Menezes netted his brace and the third goal for his team as he headed the ball into the far corner off Umesh Pujar cross from the right flank, 3-1.

Hemant Rodrigues and Nikhil reduced the margin for Arambol. In the last five minutes of the match Moira hammered in two more goals in the 86th and 89th minute through Craig Menezes, to give full points and victory to his team.
